

June 2, 1944

Mr. W. M. Harrison,
Grand Hotel,
South Parkway,
Chicago, Illinois.

Dear Mr Harrison:

I am sure you have heard by now that the Eagles are playing in Chicago, Sunday June 11, 1944.

I am writing to ask you to please reserve rooms for the 18 men for Friday, Saturday and Sunday, June 9, 10, and the 11th. If you cannot accomodate them please arrange for them elsewhere, they will come directly to the hotel Friday June 9, after playing the night game in Michigan City.

Thank you for your cooperation, will see you soon.

Very Truly Yours

EM:ejs
